Attached memorandum dated 17 March 1949, subject: [REDACTED]

1. On 24 March 1949 [REDACTED] Inspection and Security, advised me by telephone that he had received a call from the FBI, which had earlier received a call from Senator Ives making a representation to speed up [REDACTED]'s clearance in order that he might proceed to Okinawa and take his wife with him.

2. I advised [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] security clearance had nothing to do with this matter, that a security waiver had been granted in this instance and therefore the FBI had never had [REDACTED] case for investigation, and that regardless of whether or not [REDACTED] was cleared, he could not at this time take his wife to Okinawa.

3. It is suggested that Senator Ives be contacted and advised of the erroneous impression which he apparently received from his conversation with [REDACTED] and further that due to the necessity for finding immediately a suitable candidate for this job [REDACTED] is no longer being considered for employment with FBIB.
